"Martha" Well Sung in English At the Century

At the Century

By Sylvester Rawling.

The Century Opera Company began its season's twenty-eighth week last night with von Flotow's "Martha." Music lovers of middle age can easily recall when this sulest old favorite of our grandware, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the beaso, chum of Jean de Reeske, fell dead on the Metropolitan (Castellmare, the proposition of the company, and this clearness of utterance is, by it Kathleen Howard, who was to have sung Nancy, is ill at Atlantic City. Bertha Shalek took the part acceptably if without the distinction Miss Howard gives to every role. Louis Kreidler was a sonorous Plunkett and William Schuster an amusing Tristram. Mr. Nicosia conducted. The choral work was good; better than that of the orchestra, which was not always in accord with it, or with the principals.

aways in accord with it, or with the principals.

In the "escape scene" of the second act, by the way, the supposediglocked door swung open. None the less, the fugitive maids burst out through the forced window, which was directly alongside the wide open door. On the whole, despite the occasional weak orchestration, the performance was well up to the best Aborn standards.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headache.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as well as of workmanship.

Well up to the best Aborn standards.

Katharine Goodson, the English planist, gave a recital at Carnegie Hall last night before a large audience. She played at her best, with fine interpretation and, at times, with a splendid abandon that she does not always disclose. She began her programme with Brahms's "Vier Klavier-stucke," opus 119, and continued it with Beethoven's "Moonlight" sonata. Then she presented a Chopin group that started with the nocturne in G major, opus 37, and fintshed with the polonaise in A flat, opus 58. For a third part she gave compositions by Grieg, Moskowskit and Liszt, and Arthur Hinton's (Miss Goodson's husband of the paper about Lydia band) "Etude Arabesque," which revealed no small measure of charm as well as of workmanship.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and she did and feels fine now."

The Other Case.

Dayton, Ohio,—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. BHERER, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

New York heard it no more until Mr. Hammerstein revived it at his Manhattan Opera House in 1906, with Bonci, Donalda, Cisneros and Arimondi. Now it may once more delight people who are so old-fashioned as to care for simple and ultra-sweet melody that is void of dissonance or symbolism.

Lois Ewell sang the title part last night, and sange it extremely well and was not a matter for immediate contract.
